9 November 2018

Dear Parents & Guardians,

TAKIRI O TE ATA REGIONAL KAPA HAKA FESTIVAL FRIDAY 7 DECEMBER

Your child is a member of our Kapa Haka Performance group and will be taking part in the Takiri o Te Ata Kapa Haka Festival on Friday 7 December. The festival is an opportunity for schools from the Kāpiti region to showcase their kapa haka talents. We are very excited and have been working hard all year with Whaea Gwen to learn our new waiata.

This year Raumati Beach School has the honour of organising and hosting the event. The festival will take place at Kāpiti College in the gymnasium. The day begins at 9.00 am with our pōwhiri for visiting schools. We need to meet at school at 8.00 am and will walk over to college. Our main performance is scheduled for 9.30 am. We will then spend the day watching other schools and sing again briefly at 2.30. We aim to be back at school by 3.30 pm for pick-up from the Learning Street.

We desperately require help on the day with the sausage sizzle fundraiser and manning the doors. If you are able to help for an hour or two, or your child is unable to attend - please email.

Ngā mihi
